

EMPOWERING PARENTS OF TRIBAL ADOLESCENTS

THURSDAY
16/01/2025

Expert Guidance for Better Parenting

Gautam Ramakrishnan, Chief Project Manager and Psychologist, led the session with valuable insights into adolescent development and parenting strategies. Parents were introduced to practical tips and tools to address the unique challenges faced by their children.

Social Worker's Perspective

Sreeja, Project Coordinator and Social Worker, emphasized the importance of parenting and highlighted critical issues faced by tribal adolescents. Her session sparked meaningful discussions and helped parents connect with their children's experiences. The parents were very much interested to know more about parenting after the session.

In Focus: Successful Awareness Session Held in Naduppathy Anganwadi

The Oleevia Foundation, in collaboration with ICDS and Naduppathy Anganwadi, organized a session for parents of tribal adolescents in Naduppathy Tribal Colony under our "Sampoorna Yuva Yojana" under Project Sashakt Bachpan. Over 20 parents attended this impactful session, which aimed to enhance parenting skills and awareness about adolescent issues in tribal communities, fostering better understanding and support for young individuals.

Voices from the Tribal Community

Jayadev, Tribal Coordinator, and Mrs. Bindu, Tribal Facilitator, shared valuable insights into the issues faced by tribal adolescents. Their inputs highlighted the need for community-driven approaches to address these challenges and foster a nurturing environment for young individuals.

Strengthening Community Bonds

The Oleevia Foundation remains dedicated to empowering tribal communities through initiatives like this session. By fostering awareness and providing practical guidance, the foundation aims to strengthen the bond between parents and adolescents, promoting growth and resilience within the community.
